The scenic town of Pagsanjan is on the southeast side of Laguna de Bay, the largest freshwater lake in South East Asia.

Upon arrival in Pagsanjan Riverview, you will be given enough time to use the restroom before proceeding to the docking area. Each of you will wear life vest and helmet.

You will walk on a cobble stone walkway passing by the Riverview’s mini garden towards the docking area. There are 49 steps going down to reach the boat docking area. You will be provided by a cushion which you will be laid in the canoe for you to sit on. Maximum of 2 guests per canoe. This canoe will be maneuvered by 2 boatmen. Boats are tug to each other. It will be towed by a motorized canoe in front up to Bumbungan River where “shooting the rapids” start. GET READY TO BE WET! Boatmen get off the boat and with the help of designed hand-holds, they pull the boat up rocks and raging water. In some areas they literally need to carry and push your boat upstream against the strong current. The path along the river is full of lush greenery and waterfalls. Canoes stopped at big rocks area just before the falls. You have to walk towards the main falls.

Upon reaching the main falls, you may swim and opt to try the raft ride to devil’s cave. Going to the Devil’s cave, you will board a bamboo raft and hold a rope tied on it. The locals pulled the rope attached to the opposite end to be able to reach the cave. After this once in a lifetime experience of the "shooting the rapids", you will board the canoe again to proceed back to Riverview for your lunch.

Upon arrival in Pagsanjan Riverview, you may change into fresh clothes and enjoy your lunch which served a local Filipino dish. After your sumptuous lunch, board bus to return to hotel.
